Halifax – Northampton UCC

(My 1st UCC on my own)

*Chairperson, Catherine Coker, not present for meeting. This UCC also does not have a secretary.

*Five Attendees plus myself.

Macon Robertson

Ryan Zakany

Monty Hux

Steve Clemons

Ron Heath

There was no written agenda for this meeting. Macon Robertson, stated he would be retiring at the end of this year. Macon stated that he and the other members of this UCC would like to see some representation from the locate companies and also from the local municipalities. Macon also stated there are no big projects going on at this time.

Ryan Zakany, with Safety Supply, also stated he was not aware of any large projects at this time. He stated there were several local area resurfacing jobs and some pipe replacement.

Ron Heath, representing the company, Badger, discussed the company he represents and the nature of what they do. Safest digging techniques, with using water and or a vacuum to safely excavate around large utility lines.

Steve Clements, with Dominion, stated there are some new gas lines being put in Enfield and pole replacements around Roanoke that he knew of.

After lunch was finished, I went thru the April power point presentation. After the presentation, we discussed emergency tickets amongst the group. It was a general consensus that involvement from the area's locating companies and local towns, would be greatly appreciate at this event. I assured the group that I would attempt to reach out to these people and see if we can their involvement.
