

Lower Cape Fear UCC Meeting

Minutes

August 15, 2017

- Glenn Carroll called the meeting to order.
- Howard Corey gave an update from NC811 (see attachment).
- Glenn discussed the issue with the damaged electric cable at the Outer Banks.
- City of Wilmington – Skipper gave an update on the State Utilities Commission action where the City of Wilmington can no longer collect a fee for right-of-way permits from the 10 Telco's, Duke Energy & PNG operating within the city limits of Wilmington. Also he said that if you have submitted plans to the City for construction, right-of-way permits and you haven't received anything back within 60 days you could then begin work.
- City of Wilmington – GenX water issues. CFPWA is installing 2,000LF of temporary water line along Military Cut Off Road and Oleander Rd. This work is in the vicinity of the existing water tank. They will be withdrawing water from this well and pumping it into their water system.
- Glenn reminded everyone about the upcoming Fall BBQ Cookout. We need sponsors. We will also have a coat drive in conjunction with our BBQ Cookout, October 17th 5:30pm-7:00pm
- H2GO – In Magnolia Greens Subd. a contractor installing a cable hit their water main six times in one week. Another contractor installing curb & gutter in that area also hit their water main.
- Next meeting is scheduled for September 19th at 9:00am at the Wilmington Fire Dept., 114 Cinema Dr., Wilmington.
